

The footbridge at North Shore is currently under construction and is located in Stockton-on-Tees, North East England. The bridge will span the 125m wide River Tees linking the Teesdale Business Park with the planned North Shore Development.

Please see the location maps below

